

Tamworth MP backs decision over Syrian refugees after social media backlash

Tamworth MP Christopher Pincher has defended his decision to vote against plans for Britain to accept unaccompanied Syrian child refugees "after coming under fire on social media.

Recent news which hit the headlines stated that around 10,000 migrant children are missing in Europe, with the House of Lords EU Committee warning the government that unaccompanied minors are being 'failed across the board'.

Read more on the Tamworth Herald's website here.